

be the most marvelous girl on earth. Millions of fans throughout the world think and know that Grace Cunard is that girl. Together with her wonder-director, Francis Ford, this beautiful Universal star has been acclaimed by all as an actress without comparison. Her superb acting in such masterpieces as "Smugglers' Island," "The Mystery of the Throne Room," "A Study in Scarlet," "The Call of the Waves," "The Ghost of Smiling Jim" and "Nabbed," besides her wonderful work in the great "Lucille Love" series, have placed her in a class by herself.

Miss Cunard is a writer of renown, having to her credit hundreds of scenarios which have been produced by the Universal.

She is very enthusiastic about her work in "The Broken Coin," the Universal serial picture play which will be shown in pictures all over the country commencing about the first of June, and promises her friends and admirers even more thrills and surprises than she showed in the "Lucille Love" series.

"ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN" SERIES ARE YET POPULAR

The Selig Polyscope Co. was the first concern in the motion picture field to institute the photoplay serial of a spectacular character. While it is true that other concerns have instituted serial photoplays, yet the Selig Co. with the "Adventures of Kathlyn" was the pioneer in an unexplored literary field. Mr. William N. Selig conceived the idea of the "Adventures of Kathlyn" series and he deputized Mr. Gilson Willets to write the series in thirteen installments. Each adventure consisted of two reels.

"The Adventures of Kathlyn," although released over a year ago, remained very popular in this and in foreign countries. This is a fact notwithstanding that the idea has been more or less imitated. The method of exploiting that serial has also never been improved upon, the same policy of syndicating the story of the picture simultaneously with the showing of the film having first originated with the "Adventures of Kathlyn" series.

The Selig Polyscope Co. has originated another unique serial to be called "The Chronicles of Bloom Center." The two-reel picture plays will carry the same characters through a series of twelve plays. Each play will be complete in itself and yet all will have certain continuity. For this series the Selig Co. has built a complete American village of the rural type. It is complete even to the town pump and the "Melodeon Hall." It is believed that this serial will prove very popular.
